Help with childcare costs

There are different ways you may be able to qualify for help with your childcare.

Free childcare

If you are working, you can apply for free childcare:

- 30 hours a week if your child is 9 months to 4 years old and you must live in England
- For 2-year-olds if you or your child gets extra support

Find out more at

gov.uk/free-childcare-if-working

All 3- to 4-year-olds are eligible for up to 15 hours of free early education or childcare. The parent or carer does not need to be working to claim this.

Tax-free childcare

Depending on whether you or your partner are working, you may be eligible for a tax free payment for each of your children to help with the costs of childcare.

You can use it to pay for approved childcare, childminders, nurseries and nannies, after school clubs and play schemes. You may be able to claim tax-free childcare if the child is under 11 years old. Visit gov.uk/tax-free-childcare

Help with childcare costs from Universal Credit

Working families may get up to 85% of childcare costs paid back to them through Universal Credit. There is no minimum to the number of hours a person needs to work.
